International Society for Enzymology Annual Conference 2015

Dear Collogues

Following the successful International Society for Enzymology Annual Conference 2014 in the island of KOS, Greece, we are now announcing the next ISE Annual Conference 2015. The conference will take place in the beautiful island of Corfu, Greece, between the dates Monday June 29-Wednesday July 1, 2015. As usual, the guiding principles of this Annual Conference are: Top science related to all aspects of laboratory medicine, in a wonderful location, with a limited number of participants. As last year, the meeting will be restricted to a maximum of 50 registrants, on a first-come-first served basis. All participants will be responsible for their expenses and will be invited to present on a topic of their choice, if they prefer.

At this point, we would like to hear if you are interested to participate, so that we can reserve a spot for you. Future announcements will provide more details related to the conference. The registration fee will be U.S $300 and will include one dinner for the participant and his/her spouse. Spouses will be registered for free.

Please respond by email at your earliest convenience at:

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

The Organizers:

Dr. Daniel Chan, ISE President

Dr. E.P. Diamandis, ISE Past President

Dr. A Scorilas, Chair, Local Organizing Committee
