APFCB Masterclass in Interpretative Commenting

Topic 2, Endocrinology Tests

1.30pm IN/ 3pm TH/ 4pm SG/ 5pm KR/
7pm Sydney

In this webinar series on Interpretative Commenting, chemical pathology experts will discuss how to interpret various laboratory test results, using only the minimal information available to the clinical laboratory. Attendees will learn how to add comments to the lab report, that will be useful and appreciated by our clinical colleagues.

Our session on Wednesday 11th November, will focus on the interpretation of General Endocrinology tests.

Certificate of attendance will be available to all participants who complete the post webinar feedback form.
